OUR CO-PASTOR SAYS:

"My prayers are more important than my presence. Although I have promised to be in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, from Sunday through Friday, I am glad that I can have a part in the services at Rohwer through prayer. I shall be grateful if you will help our work in Tuscaloosa by your prayers."

Dr. W. Maxfield Garrott left yesterday for the southern city to take part in the School of Missions which will be conducted in the various churches. We are happy to share him with our friends outside to stimulate continued interest in the world-wide missionary cause.

TO MISS FINCH

Our superintendent of S. S. #3, Miss Mary Finch, is leaving our midst this week for her home in Chase City, Virginia. In appreciation for her vital part in the work of our church, the Sunday School teachers honored her at the Valentine's Party last Saturday. We regret to lose her but hope to meet again.

C.Y.F.

Tonight, helpful lessons from the life of "Honest Abe" Lincoln will be revealed. He made trips to New Orleans navigating on a river near our camp. The C. Y. F. is fortunate in obtaining George Kaneko, co-ordinator of Rohwer Y.M.C.A. to speak on "George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Joe Nisei". Stop at your friend's barrack and bring him along at 7:30 p.m.

Y.P.C.F.

Interesting panel discussion on "What Made Lincoln Great?" will stimulate Y.P.C.F.'s cerebral contents. It will encourage you. Come and share your thoughts, too. Nisei board chairman, Hiroshi Hamano; Miyoko Masada, and Usami Terada will bring their ideas. Mrs. Ruth Niiya will preside.

To start off the meeting, the pianist will play for the songfest at 7:30 p.m.

BAPTISM

It is a great joy to see young people come forward professing their faith in Jesus, our Saviour. Members, continue to pray that many, many more may be won to Him.

George Mochizuki will receive baptism this morning. He is leaving for the Army on Monday.

SOLDIERS, please register in the guestbook.

APPRECIATION

We thank Mrs. Ruth Niiya, chmn., and members of the old Board for their faithful service to our church.

Mrs. Neva Benedict of First Presbyterian Church of Long Beach, Calif., for Bibles sent by her youth group.

The N. W. Texas Conference of Methodist Church, through Mrs. E. E. Traweek of Abilene, Texas, sent donation to S. S.

HAPPINESS HOUR

Wednesday, February 14, 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

More new people are coming to the midweek services. Here is the place where you can get better acquainted with our members and ask questions. The Bible becomes more understanding and we get strength by praying together. Miss Anna Bell Williams will be the leader at the Church Office this Wednesday.

The junior group will study I Samuel, 16th chapter at PSH 2.
